

Face Shields COVID-19

For use in ERs, surgical centers, first responders. Vital piece of equipment to protect healthcare professionals during COVID-19 outbreak.

GENERAL CONCEPT

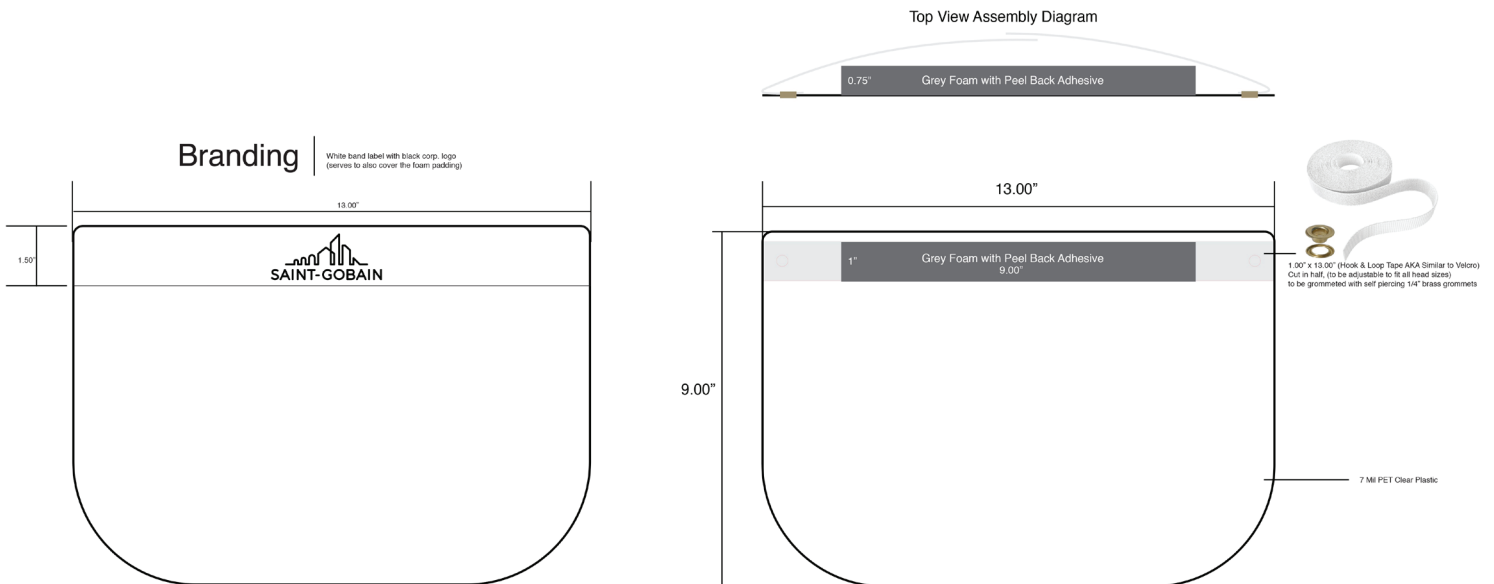

Face Shield is 7-Mil Clear PET film

Foam Strip on inside and at the top of the Face Shield

Adjustable headband for easy wear

All components riveted together: clean finishing (no tapes, no staples)

Face Shields are individually clear plastic-wrapped, packed in boxes containing 100

For information about purchasing, please contact Saint-Gobain at <https://www.saint-gobain-northamerica.com/covid-19-response>

For additional information contact luc.goemaere@saint-gobain.com

Saint-Gobain is a $43 Billion global manufacturing company founded in 1665 by French King Louis XIV with 180,000 employees worldwide, 172 sites in US/Canada with 16,000 employees across the region. Nine sites in California from San Diego to Napa. San Diego business, SolarGard, is retrofitting their plant to make surgical shields for hospitals and first responders.

